Dear Dr. Warner:

I wanted to express my appreciation for your contribution to our block of instruction on Soviet Military Policy and Programs. I understand that your presentation on Soviet Military History and Doctrine was well received by the class and that you also provided valuable advice to the course director in planning the course. It is good to see that someone with your qualifications has been willing to participate in this important part of our new Soviet studies program. We hope we can count on your continued interest and support in the future.

Sincerely,

Director of
Training and Education
